

EXPERIENCED PROSECUTOR NEEDED TO SERVE AS AN OPDAT INTERMITTENT LEGAL ADVISOR IN BRAZIL

The Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training (OPDAT), Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, seeks an experienced Department of Justice Trial Attorney or Assistant United States Attorney to serve as an Intermittent Legal Advisor (ILA) in Brasilia, Brazil. This assignment is for a term of three months, with the possibility of an extension, subject to availability of funds. (This is a reimbursable detail.)

The ILA will represent the U.S. Department of Justice and OPDAT in the implementation of justice sector technical assistance activities that will focus on asset recovery in corruption cases. The ILA will work with appropriate host country officials, the U.S. Embassy in Brasilia, and the Department of Justice in Washington to develop and implement an effective asset recovery training program. The program may involve providing advice on existing laws, drafting legislation, and proposing regulations. The ILA will also be expected to take the lead in improving prosecutorial and judicial professionalism through skills development assistance.

Applicants must have the ability to function effectively in an international, multi-cultural environment; be mature and self-sufficient; be able to efficiently initiate and manage work projects; and possess extensive prosecutorial experience. Comparative law or other international experience is desirable.

Interested applicants should send a resume and cover letter as soon as possible to the attention of Olga Kalashnikova, Program Analyst, Office of Overseas Prosecutorial Development, Assistance and Training (OPDAT), Criminal Division, U.S. Department of Justice, 1331 F Street, NW, Suite 400, Washington, DC 20004. Faxed or e-mailed submissions are acceptable. Ms. Kalashnikova's fax number is: (202) 616-6770. The e-mail address is: Olga.Kalashnikova@usdoj.gov.

Applications will be accepted until the position is filled.
